

The Muslim Studies Program presents

Gender Relations and Representations in Asian Muslim Contexts and Beyond

Thursday, October 13, 4pm
303 International Center

“Transgressing Religious Boundaries in Women’s Empowerment: Lessons from Gujarat”

SOMA CHAUDHURI
Department of Sociology

“Womanhood and Power in Afghanistan and the United States: A Comparative Perspective”

M. JAMIL HANIFI
Department of Anthropology

“Ethnography of a Harem: Gender, Power, and Aesthetics in 16th-17th-Century Mughal India”

JYOTSNA SINGH
Department of English

This panel was organized by the MSU Muslim Studies Program in collaboration with the Center for Gender in Global Context. Cosponsors include the Asian Studies Center; College of Arts & Letters; College of Social Science; Department of Anthropology; Department of English; Department of Linguistics & Languages; Department of Religious Studies; Department of Sociology; Global Studies in the Arts & Humanities; Honors College; James Madison College; Office for International Students & Scholars; Residential College in the Arts & Humanities